

CUSTARD WALLY

.....and then we noticed that the power had been cut or was it January 1st 2000?

Ho, ho, ho, ho! Chlamydia under the missile tow!

Yep, it's that time of the year: Stores, shopping, horrible crowds with worse odors, screaming brats, overdrinking at office parties and actin' like an ass, waiting endlessly for cashier's to stir, hard earned dollars turning to urine before your very eyes. Some will travel far and pay well to risk otherwise unnecessary catastrophic aerodisaster.

Troubling??

Nah. A mere stone in the cosmic shoe this puhticulah annum, for sober, unshampooed scientists report that as of mid-November, well over 30 known Soviet (yipes!!) missiles pointed at the United States were still not Y2K compliant. You can bet yer grandma's onion patch that an Italian percentage of those are pointed directly at us nuyawkuhs. While some may fret over such explosions, we choose to focus on the big mushroom cloud: Would the Gods not be pleased to receive us in the heat of battle, furthering our grimy cause?

Sure they would!

This is why we choose to die honorably, guitar in hand on Houston Street; thus ensuring a speedy admission into Valhalla and the partaking of it's subsequent poultries.

You may have found us animated before; but the thought of becumming instant vapotoastercrust at the drop of a rooshkie's drink will only inspire us to play faster, jump higher, sing meaner and drool wetter. You'll get yer $6 worth this time and Wally management has obtained written verification that there'll be enuff beer/rotgut/grog/mead to drown a sect!

Come celebrate the millennium's New Year's Eve wif CUSTARD WALLY at.....

December 31st, 1999 10:00pm SPIRAL

244 E. Houston St. 212-353-1740

Spiral is conveniently located in downtown Manhattan, on the north side of Houston St. between Ave. A and Ave. B. Take the F train to the 2nd Avenue stop and walk 1.5 blocks east or the 6 train to the Bleecker Street stop.

All the mayhem associated with the millennial hooha is enough to melt yer brain pan. In honor of the impending world and cerebral implosion, we include the lyrics to "Mindnumbing."
